

CHARLIE DUTTON GALLERY

1a Princeton Street, London. WC1R 4AX. 0207 831 0889
www.charlieduttongallery.com mail@charlieduttongallery.com

PRESS RELEASE

Damien Meade

14th - 31st March

Preview: Tuesday 13th March 6-9pm

Charlie Dutton is pleased to present a solo exhibition of new work by Damien Meade.

Damien Meade makes somewhat absurd and grotesque paintings of sculpted figurative forms made from clay, tape, wire and other materials, drawing on a diversity of influences including psychoanalysis, sci-fi, idolatry and the Baroque

Editors Notes:

Charlie Dutton and Damien Meade are available for interviews by making an appointment on 07930689839 or email charlie@charlieduttongallery.com Full collections of high res graphics are also available on request. The gallery is open to the public Wednesday – Friday 10 – 6 Saturday 10 – 1 or by appointment.

Recent exhibitions include FROM LONDON, Galleria Art Nueve, Murcia, Spain (2011), Be-Head, Andipa Gallery, London (2010), Supernatural (curated by Dan Hays), Charlie Dutton Gallery, London (2010), The House of Fairy Tales, Millennium Gallery, St. Ives (2010), SV10 Members Show-Selected by Jennifer Higgie and Rebecca Warren, Studio Voltaire, London (2010).

Damien Meade was born in Ireland in 1969. He lives and works in London.

His work can also currently be seen in SV12 Members Show - selected by Mike Nelson and Jenni Lomax at Studio Voltaire, London, until 31st March:

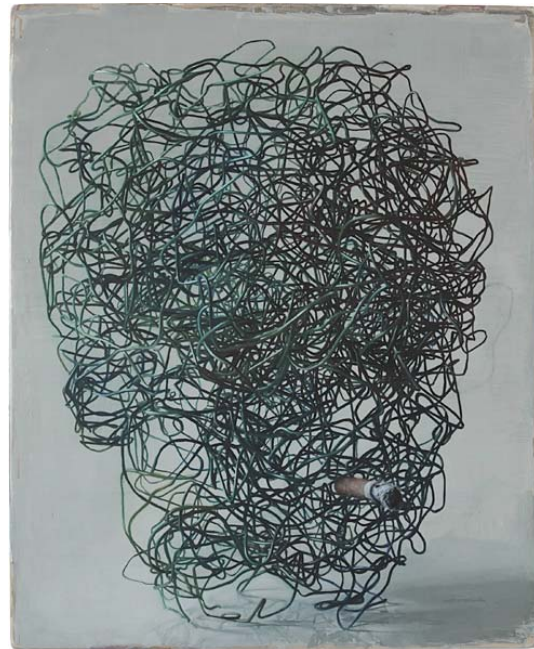

CHARLIE DUTTON GALLERY

1a Princeton Street, London. WC1R 4AX. 0207 831 0889
www.charlieduttongallery.com mail@charlieduttongallery.com

I Understand

Oil on linen on board
54.5 x 44 cm

The Information

Oil on linen on board
66.5 x 46 cm

Frontier Psychiatry

Oil on linen on board
54.5 x 63 cm